The information I have supplied in this application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. If accepted to the program, I agree to and accept the following:

- I will forward my transcript as per my crediting university's requirements.
- I will purchase travel health insurance required by the Amelia International Conservation Studies Program.
- I authorize the Study Abroad Coordinator to release any information deemed relevant to my health and/or safety.
- I will be fully vaccinated against COVID and agree to take required tests and health screening before participating (please refer to the AICS COVID Policy).

By sending this application via email to ARCIFS at admissions@arcifs.org you are agreeing to the above statements.

Note: * Students must sign up for all courses offered in their program.

Note: Graduate level will require extra work, to be determined by the program faculty. AICS is not an accredited institution. To receive credit, participants must apply through their home university.

Note:  To audit a course and receive a certificate of participation you need to attend a minimum of three quarters of the classes.

Note: The Amelia International Conservation Studies Program may be cancelled if the minimum enrollments are not met. You will be informed of such a cancellation after March 15, 2024. Please do not make travel arrangements until you have been accepted and received confirmation that the program will take place. AICS reserve the right to review the applicants and determine who will be accepted into the programs. Refund Policy: On March 15th AICS will establish if we have the enrollment required for the program to go ahead. Should the program be cancelled due to low enrollment, or any other AICS decision, applicants will be fully refunded. If an applicant withdraws their application before the March 15th deadline, they will be refunded the €450 deposit but not the €50 application fee. Those students that withdraw their application after March 15 will not receive a refund of either the application fee or the deposit.
